WALLA WALLA HIGH SCHOOL

To Wa-Hi, the school we all love the best;
 To Principal Jones, whose worth we attest;
 To Teachers who scold us when work we neglect;
 To Drop-tests which come when least we expect;
 To the Bulletin Board which gives us the news
 And a list of the things we carelessly lose;
 To the Clubs, so "very important" which meet;
 To Speakers who tell us of Tanks and of Feet;
 To the Judicial Board giving sentence for crime;
 To the Eh Kah Nam seldom appearing on time;
 To Yellow Slips sent us whenever we shirk;
 To Wobblies, who never are busy at work;
 To Athletic Teams, who have won us great fame
 And made us a school well worthy the name;
 To the Proctors so stern in C or in D;
 To the Class Council members who never agree;
 To Labs and to Sharks, to Debate and to Band;
 To our R. O. T. C., the best in the land;
 To Cigarette Themes, to our Movie that's new;
 To Lyceum, Dress Reform, Honor Roll, too;
 To all we have named and more if we'd time,
 This book we now dedicate; pardon our rhyme.
 We began and we'll end with Wa-Hi, the best;
 Find us its equal in all the Northwest!

Walla Walla High School is in the minds of more people in the Northwest than is any similar institution. The reason is very simple for the students have adopted as their motto the saying: "If a thing is worth doing, it is worth doing with all your might." With this phrase in mind the representatives of our school continue to bring more fame and glory to Wa-Hi. On account of the restricted number of students on our athletic, debate and declamation teams, we have entered into another game where every student is given a chance to bring still more fame to Wa-Hi, and that game is "Student Government."

"Student Government" means "self-control." We who are students under such government should feel that we are very fortunate to learn the great lesson of self-control while we are forming life-long habits. Many a failure in life has been caused by the lack of self-control. Every act we commit is either right or wrong; there is no halfway point. Isn't the person who is thoroughly trained in self-control, who can instantly determine what is right, and who can, then, act accordingly, of more benefit to his country than is the person who lacks such initiative. A student may fail to conquer all his subjects in the four years' course of high school, but if he becomes a master of himself, he has learned one of life's most valuable lessons.

Student government, which has been in action for the past five years, leaves the control of the conduct of the students, while in the halls and in assemblies, entirely to the students themselves. This year we have extended student government to our study halls; as a result the order which is demonstrated has never been equalled in the history of Wa-Hi. The cooperation of the students and the backing of such a man as Mr. Jones have assured us our success and once more have proven the phrase, "In Union there is strength."

WHO ARE THESE CHILDREN? TURN TO PAGE 148

ACORN, JEAN—"Great oaks from little acorns grow."

"Jeenie" has been with us but one year, coming from Colville. She is a member of the El Adreas, the Spanish, Glee and Classical Clubs, and of the Vox Puellarum. The 6th period finds her a proctor in Study C.

AUGUSTAVO, RALPH AUGUSTUS P.—"Come on now, Bunch, lots of pep."

"Angie" is an old resident of Wa-Hi, having been here for the last ten or twelve years. When he attained his junior year he edited a fine annual, and has also seen service on the Eh Kah Nam. For three years he dealt out sentences to culprits. He is almost as famous as Sousa, being a member of the Glee Club, Orchestra, and Band. He was president of his class for three consecutive years, and is a member of that august body, the Senators. However, his greatest achievements have been won as Yell Leader and as Business Manager of the Athletic teams, during which time our teams have won many victories. He has also received a degree in fussing, having indulged in a new girl each year.

BAILEY, DOROTHY—"I am a firm believer in a great future for women."

"Dot" is an active member of the Vox Puellarum and the Seminars. She has also represented her class in basketball and volleyball. We know that Dorothy will achieve great success in the realm of pedagogues.

BARNHART, LLOYD—"A cold stare but a warm heart."

"Barney" has attended Wa-Hi three years, but during that time he has proven a Wa-Hi booster. He is a member of the House and R. O. T. C. He played an important part in making last year's Annual a success. Starbuck lost a mighty man when Barney left. Maybe he's going back????

BAXTER, DOROTHY—"Consistent and persistent in all things even unto fussing."

"Spot" is one of Wa-Hi's boosters. She is a member of the Gimmel Teths and Spanish Clubs. Her daily occupation is giving orders to young men.

BAXTER, ROSCOE—"Not an advocate of single happiness."

"Biscuits." Perhaps he didn't know he was going to graduate, or perhaps he didn't have time, for his time is generally taken, but for some mysterious reason we could not find his pedigree.

BEATY, LEAFY L—"Usually so very quiet; perhaps you did not spy the mischief in her eye."

"Pete," altho a Lone Star Ranger, has in one short year, proved her worth in Wa-Hi. She is an active member of the El Adrea, Vox Puellarum, Spanish and Glee Clubs. During the last semester she has served as recorder of the El Adreas.

BECK, LOUIS—"He would look up at the ceiling with a sort of sleepy gaze."

"Tiny" is a member of the Wa-Hi, R. O. T. C. and Spanish Club and is a Senator. We don't know how he spends his time outside of 8:45 and 3:15 but we can vouch for his quietness in school. He is a great profiteer, displaying his ability every morning by saving car fare.

BLACKMAN, HAROLD H.—"He was not merely a chip off the old block, but the old block itself."

"Blackie" is one of Uncle Sam's soldiers and one of Wa-Hi's athletes. Many times he has plunged through the line and brought glory to Wa-Hi. He is a member of the Eh Kah Nam Staff and the Hayseeds. "Blackie" has many nicknames but the one he likes best is "Spanish Cavalier."

BLAHM, EMMA—"A friend with ready hands and a willing heart."

"Emmy Lou" is a member of the Glee, Vox Puellarum, and Seminar Clubs. We are sure of Emmy Lou's success because of her pluck, good-will and friendly smile.

BOLT, ROSCOE MAHLON—"A girl is only a girl, but a good cigar is a smoke."

"Bolt" is a member of the House and R. O. T. C. Clubs. He has displayed athletic ability on the football and basketball second teams. He didn't "bolt" through Wa-Hi for he has been with us five long years.

BRATTON, ROBERT—"I see my mother's bad 'ittle boy."

"Bob" has been a member of the French Club and shows great skill in swinging the racket. Where Bob is, mischief is.

BRUCE, OCEA—"Sunshine and rain at once."

"Mike" is a member of the French and Vox Puellarum Clubs, reporter of the Gimmel Teths, and an active worker on the Eh Kah Nam Staff. Always busy, tho always quiet.

BRYSON, JUANITA—"Her nature sweet, her talents many."

"Johnny" is a member of the French and Spanish Clubs. She has represented her class on the Council and was a member of the Annual Staff. "Few words but many deeds" are her chief characteristics.

BUEHLER, VERNON—"Now, which of my girls am I going to see tonight?"

"Verny." Wa-Hi is proud of her service flag and of the boys for whom the stars stand. Verny is a soldier and saw active service in France.

BURKS, JOE—"All they tell on the Irish ain't true b'gorra!"

"Guck" is a Senator and a member of the Class Council and Eh Kah Nam Staff. He is a captain in the R. O. T. C. But the thing for which Wa-Hi will always remember him is the way he went under, over the top, and came up smiling, the ball in his arms.

CAUVEL, FRANCES—"Life's too short to hustle."

"Frenchy" has been active during her four years at Wa-Hi. She is a member of the French, German, and O. G. A. Clubs. She has been stenographer for both Eh Kah Nam and Annual.

DEYE, IRENE—"I am here for business."

"Renie" is always busy, and yet is always ready to help. She has been a member of Seminar, French, Classical, and Glee Clubs, and has exhibited great ability as an orator.

DUNPHY, SABINA—"She promised little, but did much."

"Bina," altho a very quiet girl, always takes a keen interest in all Wa-Hi's activities. She has been a member of the French and Classical Clubs, has been on the Eh Kah Nam, and wears a Gimmel Teth pin.

EFFINGER, ELSIE—"A little woman with large ability."

"Shorty" is reporter for the O. G. A.'s and a member of the Glee Club. If a quiet tongue shows a wise head she is wise.

EIFFERT, EVERETT—"Why have you been so quiet? You have never spoken a word."

"Effie" is a member of the Agriculture and Mechanic Clubs. He goes about his work in a quiet manner but does it well.

FANNING, HAROLD—"A ladies' man."

"Swede" is vice speaker of the House and speaks well. One reason for the good Eh Kah Nams this year and for last year's Annual is the fact that Swede has been a member of both staffs. He is also a member of the W. W. Club and a Sergeant in the R. O. T. C. Swede has great dramatic ability, and can impersonate any type of man from a minister to a woolly cowboy.

FARMER, SAM—"For home and mother the opposing teams squall, when straight down the field rushes Sam with the ball."

"Gucker" is feared as no other person in school on the day the Judicial Board holds its dark mysterious meetings. But he was feared much more, when as Captain of our team, he went plunging down the field, with the ball in his hand. Wa-Hi loses a fine athlete and booster when Sam leaves. The House proudly claims him as a member.

FERGUSON, CLYDE—"Let the world slide, I'll not budge an inch."

"Ferg" is a member of the Hayseeds and Spanish Clubs, and has been interested in all of Wa-Hi's activities.

FITZGERALD, RICHARD—"Mischief thou art afoot, take what course thou wilt."

"Dick" has been a member of the Annual Staff and the R. O. T. C. and puts life into all his classes. 'Nuf said??

GLUCK, NEOMA—"A little backward in coming forward."

"Quack" is a quiet girl who goes her own way, makes many friends, and does her work well.

GOODWIN, GLADYS—"Some say my ambition is to be a writer, but I'd much rather be a heroine."

"Aunt Edith" is known especially for her work as Literary Editor of the Eh Kah Nam. She is vice president of the O. G. A.'s and a member of the Spanish Club. Gladys stands near the top on the honor roll and has received the scholarship award.

GOSE, NEWTON—"Ginger up and get a hustle."

"Dixie" is a member of the R. O. T. C. and an honor student.

GRAY, OPAL—"Silence is the perfect herald of joy."

"Ogie" holds the trustworthy position of treasurer of the Seminars, and is a member of the O. G. A., Vox Puellarum and Glee Clubs. She comes to school and does her best in a quiet way.

GWINN, ESTHER—"Life is a dream and I am a dreamer."

"Gwinny" has been secretary of the Classical Club, a member of the Glee and El Adrea Clubs, on the inter-class council, and Annual reporter and in the Latin plays. She is never too busy to have fun or to play some joke.

HAVEN, LOUISE—"Her friends are many and her foes are few."

"Prunes," tho she has been one of the quiet brigade all thru her school life, is a very jolly girl. She is a life member of the Vox Puellarum.

HAWKS, IRENE—"Her theory which she does expound, a laugh and a smile that makes the world go 'round."

"Skinny" is a true Wa-Hi booster. She has been vice president of her class, a member of the Annual and El Kah Nam Staffs, a Gimmel Teth and an O. G. A. She takes an active part in both business and fun, and in the Senior class play we saw her as "Fanny," the leading lady.

HOELSCHER, EDA—"Winner of the standing broad smile."

"Johnny" has attended Wa-Hi only one year but during that time has won many friends by her cheerful manner and smile. She is a member of the Vox Puellarum, Classical, Spanish, Glee, and Seminar Clubs.

HUGHES, HOWARD T.—"As silent as the grave."

"Hod" has been so very quiet during his year at Wa-Hi that we have not learned of his abilities. However, who knows?? Still water runs deep.

HURSPPOOL, EVELYN—"For even tho vanquished, she will argue still."

"Lyn" is a member of the El Adreas, Vox Puellarum, Tillicum Camp Fire, French, and Classical Clubs. "Lyn" is happiest when she can argue. "Laugh and the world laughs with you. Argue and you argue alone."

JACKSON, OTIS C.—"He is hunting for lost time."

"Otie" is a member of the House. You can never tell what these quiet fellows are like when they're not under observation.

JENSEN, IRENE—"One of the best-known girls in Wa-Hi."

"Jenny" is a member of the Glee, Classical, and Spanish Clubs. She has been vice president and president of the Gimmel Teths, and it is due to her splendid leadership that the society has passed such a successful year. Bubbling over with fun, Jenny in sentencing other culprits for the last two years has often had to obey her own sentence. She is a jolly girl and next to an increasing fondness for our Yell King, she likes nothing better than fun, fudge, and frolic. Irene has displayed great ability as an actor both in Senior assemblies and in the Senior play.

JONES, MAXINE—"We can only be young once."

"Spooks" is a member of the French and Spanish Clubs and makes fun wherever she is. We have heard that she burns the midnight oil—but not for study.

KEELEN, HARRIS—"Excuse me, ladies, I am a man of few words."

"Ike" answered his country's call and went to France. He is one whom Wa-Hi is glad to claim as a student and whom the class of '20 is glad to call a fellow member. Harris is president of the W. W. Club and a member of the House. But it is for the pluck and ability he displayed on Wa-Hi field and floor that we honor him. Altho Ike is rather quiet, we rarely see him walking alone.

KENDALL, E. EVERETTE—"He who is wrapped up in his work never suffers from a cold."

"Ken" is from the Milton High and during his year at Wa-Hi has been so very quiet, we have not learned much about him, except that perhaps those homesick sighs mean more than we realize.

KINCHELOE, CLARA JAMES—"Better happy than wise."

"Jim" is one of the jolly girls, who whenever we meet her is laughing. She is a member of the El Adreas and the Vox Puellarum, and is also some basketball player.

KIRKMAN, HAROLD—(No picture)—"Sometimes conspicuous by his absence."

"Kirk" is the only Senior whose picture we have not been able to obtain. He is a mid year graduate, and now has a position in one of the banks. For this reason we have not been able to obtain either pedigree or picture.

KRAMER, IRENE—"Ever kind and yet so shy."

"Renie" is an active member of the Vox Puellarum. Some day we will hear the results of her quiet work in Wa-Hi.

KRAMER, MARGUERITE E.—“If silence were gold, I'd be a millionaire.”

“Shorty” seems a girl of cheerful yesterdays and confident tomorrows. She is quiet but all the more worthy. And we heard that she is not so quiet away from school.

LAMBERT, RUTH—“She has a habit of putting her heart into everything she does.”

“Butie” is a girl of many talents. Her art has not only helped make a success of the Annual and Eh Kah Nam, but her playing has been a great aid to the orchestra. She has been a member of the Class Council and El Adreas.

LANGDON, WARREN—“Plays hide and seek with his feet when he dances.”

“Charlie Chaplin.” In deep mourning over his love affairs, Warren could not remember, after repeated requests, to hand in his pedigree. We sympathize with him and are very sorry we do not have a record of his activities in Wa-Hi.

LEAKE, ALLEN—“Nobody loves a fat man. That's why I have friends.”

“Mable” is a member of the Hayseeds and Senate, also one of the best members out for Track. Don't worry, “Mable,” she'll soon graduate too.

LEGGETT, NETTIE—“Good things in small packages.”

“Blondie” is a quiet little girl who comes and goes and is always busy.

LORTON, DOROTHY—“A winsome smile and tripping toe; what more can man desire.”

“Dutch” is a member of the Spanish, French, Latin, and Vox Puellarum Clubs. She has been a true Wa-Hi booster for four years. There is only one thing we can't understand, the unusual gay manner and happy smile at Christmas and Easter.

LORTON, MILDRED—“Admirers do not turn my head.”

“Milly” is one of the brightest spots in the class of '20. Her ready wit and habitual good humor have made her a jolly companion. She is a member of the Latin and Vox Puellarum Clubs. Some day “Milly” will be as great as Mary Pickford, for her ability to become so has been demonstrated in both the Latin and Senior plays.

MAHAN, LOYD—“Just learning to smoke????”

“Swede” has been a member of the Class Council and Senate, and has shown great interest in interclass athletics. His class, with Swede as president, passed a very successful Sophomore year. We heard him made the remark one day that being good was a lonesome job but he would not be bad????

MARCY, MILO—“Brevity is the spice of speech.”

“Lo” is at present a member of the O. G. A.'s at Wa-Hi, but in the future we expect to see him the president's private stenographer with headquarters at Washington, D. C.

MAXSON, ALICE—“She is just the quiet type, whose virtues never vary.”

“Hoot” is a friend to everyone she knows and everyone she knows is her friend. She has been a member of the Glee Club and is a good student.

MCCOSHUM, ESTHER—“When she decides a thing, it is decided.”

“Carrie” is a member of the O. G. A.'s and is some “stenog.” Typewriting is not her only accomplishment for she can play the violin with skill.

MELTON, MABLE—“I am content—the wise are always so.”

“Mil” is specializing in Home Economics and can make biscuits which melt in your mouth. She has represented her class in basketball.

MENDENHALL, DOROTHY IDA—“Witty to talk with; pretty to walk with.”

“Dar” is from Lewis and Clark but Wa-Hi claims her now. She is vice president of the El Adreas and a member of the Glee Club. There is a sense of mystery about it but we have heard of many broken hearts and downcast boys since Dar arrived at Wa-Hi. She is a member of the Senior play caste.

MILLER, IRMA—“She goes her way, nor bothers any man.”

“Skinny” is a member of the Vox Puellarum and is an honor student of Wa-Hi.

MOORE, MACARTHUR—"One continual question mark."

"Mac" is full of mischief and in a short time everyone knows it. He puts life into all his classes. We didn't expect him to hand in his pedigree for it would have caused him too much trouble to try to remember it.

MORGAN, ELEANOR—"I am wrapped up in my own virtue."

"Fuzzy" is always laughing and full of fun. She has been a member of the French, Vox Puellarum, Seminar, and O. G. A. Clubs.

NELMS, MILTON—"Has walked alone to classes twice in four years, and from classes but once."

"Doc" is a member of the French Club, and has been both Sergeant and Corporal in the Wa-Hi R. O. T. C. Milton has not been lonesome his six or seven years at Wa-Hi for he has never been alone.

NETTLESHIP, WILLIAM—"They say the good die young."

"Bill." According to this old adage, perhaps Bill has already crossed over the great divide. At any rate, we have not seen him for many weeks.

NOLAND, JOSEPHINE—"I am not anxious to be distinguished."

"Jo." The Senior class is known for its scores of quiet girls. Perhaps they are what have made the Senior class such a wonder. Jo is one of these—always busy but always quiet.

OPPERMAN, MAE—"The world was not made in a hurry so take your time."

"Majie" has been a member of the Glee, Gamma Theta, and French Clubs.

PAGE, BURNS—"I achieve to do nothing wonderful."

"Page" is such a busy boy that he simply could not find time to write out his pedigree. We almost failed to get this picture, too, as he insists on a weekly haircut.

PECK, HATTIE—"Loves a quiet and peaceful life?????"

"Puck" is a member of the Classical and French Clubs. She has won her nickname thru her spry and witty impersonations of Puck in the Classical Club plays.

PERRY, GLEN—"A good pilot, and calm at sea."

"Tiny." Mr. Jones expressed the sentiment of the Student Body when he said, "I take off my hat to him." He has been a member of the Glee Club and vice president of his class. During the third year he was president of the W. W. Club. "Tiny" is an athlete and can't help it that he has a trunk full of letter awards in stock. It is to Glen that we owe much of the success of student government. As a Junior he represented his class in Class Council and was secretary of the Student Body. As a Senior he received the highest compliment paid to any student having been elected president of the Student Body.

PERRY, HARRY M.—"He would be fellow with the best king, and you will find him the best king of good fellows."

"Happy" has been very active during his four years at Wa-Hi. As class president he has safely piloted the Senior class, through the last and most successful year of its existence. He is an honor student, has been president of the Glee Club, a member of the Senate, W. W. Club, Judicial Board, and Annual Staff. For two successive years "Happy" has presided over the Hayseeds. As a member of both basketball and football teams he has proven himself quite indispensable to Wa-Hi.

PETERSON, HOWARD—"All great men are dying, I don't feel well myself."

"Duke" has been a reporter, secretary and a live member of the Hayseeds. He has been president of that reverend body, the Senators and an influential member of both the Annual and Eh Kah Nam Staffs. When a Freshman he tooted a horn in the orchestra, when a Senior he gave orders to Cadets on Wa-Hi grounds.

PFEIFFER, DAVID—"The farmers are the backbone of a nation."

"Moo" has been sergeant-at-arms of the Senate and a member of the Hayseeds. He has been a fine athlete, playing on the Varsity football squad during his Senior year.

QUINN, ALMIRA—"Just being happy is a fine thing to do."

"Al" has been Eh Kah Nam reporter of the El Adreas and an active member of Vox Puellarum.

RAE, WALTER—"When he sees a maiden fair, he blushes as if in despair."

"Al Perkins" is another one of the busy Seniors who didn't have time to write his pedigree.

REED, KATHRYN—"Cordial and Courtous."

"Ryn" was secretary and treasurer of her class during the Sophomore year, a member of the El Adreas and president of the Seminar Society.

REYNOLDS, EVELYN—"On with the dance; let joy be unconfined."

"Ray" has been a member of the French and Classical Clubs. She will soon be rivaling the greatest of American actors with the dramatic ability she displayed in the Latin play.

RICE, CECIL—"Extensive brains do not necessarily need to be protected by a mass of hair."

"Chink." After many entreaties he finally condescended to tell us that he entered Wa-Hi this fall from Queen Anne High.

RIFFLE, ROY ELIHU—"He who is satisfied with himself is past cure."

"Doc Riffles" has been a member of the House, Glee and Classical Clubs. We predict a future on the stage for Roy as he has played important parts in the Latin and Senior plays, and in the Declamation contests. Every time he has a new girl he writes a book with the girl as heroine. His library now consists of about five hundred volumes.

ROBINSON, LUCILE V.—"Oh! there was a little girl who had a little curl."

"Seal" is a member of the Glee, Vox Puellarum, and Spanish Clubs. She is bright in rain or sunshine.

ROYCE, BESSEY MILDRED—"Full of fun and mischief too, doing things she shouldn't do."

"Bess" has been secretary of the El Adreas and a member of the O. G. A. Try Mildred's advice on walking to become beautiful.

SAUZE, FRANK—"Why don't they make me a general?"

"Sausage" has been sergeant-at-arms in the House, and Sergeant of the Cadets. He was a member of the Annual Staff. He won fame as a sharp-shooter at the Presidio, and also at Wa-Hi for his shots always hit hard—See La Verna Hackett for the results of the shot.

SCHOENBERG, FYRNE—"My hair is not red, it is auburn."

"Pinkie." This is her first and last year in Wa-Hi, where she entered from Prosser High. She has been a member of the O. G. A.

SEXTON, MAUDE—"As good as the worst of us."

"Twinie" is one of the "peppiest" girls of Wa-Hi. She has been a member of the O. G. A., French, Gimmel Teth, Glee, Spanish, and Vox Puellarum Clubs. During her last year she read the minutes and took the roll of the Senior class. Lively, full of fun, and always ready to help is Maude.

SEXTON, MYRTLE—"As bad as the best of us."

"Twinie." The same can be said of Myrtle, another of the "peppiest" girls Wa-Hi has. She has been a member of the Glee, Vox Puellarum, Spanish, Gimmel Teth, and French Clubs. Our Eh Kah Nam could not possibly be anything but fine with Twinie on the staff. She has been vice president of the Senior class. As a Junior she represented her class on the Class Council, and as a Senior met with that stern and severe body, the Judicial Board. As Honoria in the Senior play she starred a great success.

SHINABARGAR, JEAN DOREEN—"A twentieth century girl with all her hopes and ambitions."

"J. D." has only been a resident of Wa-Hi one year, but has proven herself a true athlete. She has been a member of the Spanish Club and has been out for basket, town and volleyball. Whenever she attempted anything from tennis to declamation she did it well. Vancouver High lost a determined athlete when Doreen left.

SIMPSON, RUTH—"Daily problems perplex her little."

"Rufus" has been a member of the Gimmel Teths and Vox Puellarum. She is a merry girl, always ready for fun.

SIVERLING, JOHN—"My boy, my boy, lead not thyself astray."

"Johnnie." This bold bad boy refused to give any information about himself so we are at a loss just what to say.

SMITH, BERYL—"Ready to work, ready to play; ready to help, wherever she may."

"Pert" has been a member of the Classical, Gimmel Teth, and Vox Puellarum Clubs. She has gone thru Wa-Hi merrily, making many new friends every day.

SMITH, FRANK—"Procrastination is the thief of time."

"Mex" has been a member of the House and Annual Staff. He has been Captain of Co. B. of Wa-Hi Cadets. Mex is a War-hero of Wa-Hi's football squad. He will probably appear on the Pantages circuit in his delightful impersonation of a Mexican bandit. Another of those Senior boys who are very versatile in love affairs.

STONE, LAURA—"Modest and quiet as a mouse."

"Pebble" has been a member of the Vox Puellarum and Seminar Clubs. Laura intends to teach, oh—"anything or anybody."

STONE, ROWENA—"Sit silent and watch the clock."

"Weenie" has been a member of the Vox Puellarum and president of the Seminars. Her occupation in future years will be to teach young ideas to shoot. Here's hoping they sprout.

TETHEROW, RALPH—"I am but a stranger; Heaven is my home."

"Bennett" has been secretary-treasurer of the House and vice president of the Classical Club. He won a bronze medal during his Sophomore year. We see in him an embryonic Walker Whiteside by the splendid work he did as "Menelaus" in the Latin play and as "Bennett" in the Senior play. He is also "a little drummer boy."

THOMAS, BOYD—"Blessed is the man, who, having nothing to say, abstains from giving us worthy evidence of the fact."

"Tom" has been reporter of the Mechanical Club and a member of the House. Shake hands with him, he enjoys it.

THOMAS, OWEN—"The world knows nothing of its greatest men."

"O. T." has been a member of the Hayseeds. "And the little old Ford rambled right along." Changed his course to dry farming since the last election.

THURBER, CLEORA—"Gee, ain't it awful to be skinny."

"Cleo" has been a member of the O. G. A. Many times during her four years at Wa-Hi, Cupid has aimed and hit.

TINKER, HUGH—"Boys will be boys."

"Tink" has been a member of the Mechanical Club. "Put off until tomorrow what you do not have to do today" seems to be his motto.

TINKER, RALPH—"Just learning to smoke."

"Tinker." No longer the innocent youth that left the farm.

TOMPKINS, VERYL H.—"A man like me is always either a God or a Devil."

"Al" has been a member of the Royal Blue Staff, Senate, Mechanics, R. O. T. C. and the Hayseeds. He represented Wa-Hi on the second basketball team. 'Tis well to L. O. O. K. wise.

TORRANCE, GRACE—"She must think life one monstrous smile, from the way she giggles all the while."

"Giggles" has been a member of the Vox Puellarum. Where there is laughter she is sure to be.

UTLEY, WILLA PAULINE—"Who conquers me shall find a stubborn foe."

"Bill" has been one of Wa-Hi's active girls. She has been both secretary-treasurer and vice president of her class, a member of both the Annual and Eh Kah Nam Staffs. Bill has served as Classical Club reporter and treasurer of the Vox Puellarum. She has been an active Gimmel Teth and represented her class both in Declamation and in the Senior play. When she speaks she wants her way, and she's generally talking.

VALENTINE, ETTA—"Hang sorrow. Care will kill a cat—and therefore let's be merry."

"Gussie" has danced, sung, and played her way right merrily thru high school. Her work on the Annual and Eh Kah Nam Staffs has added much to the success of Wa-Hi's literary productions. She has been vice-president of the El Adreas, and vice president and president of the Vox Puellarum, and a member of the Spanish and German Clubs. When a Junior, she kept the class roll, and as a Senior she represented her class in assemblies and the Senior play. However this bright and laughing girl is taken—so there's no need to apply.

VANNICE, AGNES—"I think that it is well to be a little reserved."

"Gus" is one of the girls at Wa-Hi for business and she follows out her purpose.

WAGGONER, GLADYS—"My tongue within my lips I rein, for who talks much must talk in vain."

"Peggy" is a member of the Vox Puellarum. We thot she was very quiet but we have seen her several times on Sunday!!!! Bring the microscope—did we see her with a man?

WALTER, CAMILLE—"A girl must think of the future—to be sure she must."

"Jimmy" entered Wa-Hi from St. Paul's two years ago. She has been a member of the French Club and Annual Staff. A great calamity befell Wa-Hi when one morning Camille appeared at assembly "Alone." For particulars—see Doe.

WEAVER, BETTIE—"Whatever anyone does or says, I must be good."

"Kinky" has been a member of the Classical and Seminar Clubs. Success be with her in teaching country lads and lassies their A. B. C.'s.

WEIR, LLOYD—"It is safe to say that what he doesn't know isn't worth knowing."

"Percy" entered from Washington High, and has proven a great asset to Wa-Hi. As a member of the Annual Staff and editor of the Eh Kah Nam, he has been responsible for some of Wa-Hi's finest literary productions. He has been president of the Glee Club, and a member of the W. W. Club. The entire student body trembles with anxiety when Percy rises up and reads the reports of Judicial Board meetings. He has been Speaker of the House, and an important member of the Debate Seminar for two years.

WHITE, HELEN—"My mind is my kingdom."

"Heck" is $\frac{1}{2}\%$ mischief and $99\frac{1}{2}\%$ hard study. She has been a member of the Seminar, Classical, and Vox Puellarum Clubs. Many times she has led her class and Wa-Hi with her splendid average. A girl so good in all her lessons can have nothing to do with boys.

WHITE, HAZEL—"My book and heart shall never part."

"Hay" is one of the most care free jolly girls in Wa-Hi. She has been vice president of the Vox Puellarum Club, a member of the French Club, and Senior class reporter. "Hay" is the opposite of her sister, and twin.

WILKINSON, EMMA—"I am content—the wise are always so."

"Fat" has been a member of the Vox Puellarum Club. A maid that's precociously fond of stirring must be a spoon, and Emma revels in Home Economics.

WILLS, CHARLOTTE—"Her hair is only a reflection of the brightness within."

"Shorty" has been a member of the French Club and Gimmel Teths. During the winter she traveled to California, but Wa-Hi called her back; at least, we think it was Wa-Hi.

WILLS, JANE—"Wears a smile that won't come off."

"Joan" has been a member of the French, Spanish, and Vox Puellarum Clubs. Joan is Joy's shadow.

WILLS, JESSIE—"Silence in woman equals speech in man."

"Joy" has been a member of the French, Spanish, Vox Puellarum, and O. G. A. Clubs. Joy is Joan's shadow.

WILSON, JOSEPHINE—"To be efficient in a quiet way, that is my aim throughout each day."

"Jo" has been a member of the Seminars, Glee Club, and Annual Staff. She is alive now, but we've heard she will probably Deye.

WOODHALL, MURYEL—"She's the merry girlie that was never known to frown."

"Dimples" has been a member of the Seminars, the French, El Adrea, and Vox Puellarum Clubs. A loyal Senior and one who has taken her work seriously.

WRIGHT, EDNA—"She is beautiful, dutiful, plentiful, and an armful."

"Ed" has been a member of the El Adrea, Classical, Vox Puellarum, and Glee Clubs. Cupid's supply gave out so "Ed" sought reinforcements in the under-classes. She's full of life and a Wa-Hi booster.

YOUNG, MERLE—"Always Dodging about."

"Earl" has been a member of the Senate, Class Council, Classical Club, and Annual Staff. Few reports about him but those are good.

YENNEY, FRED W.—"Never tells all he knows."

"Fritz" is commonly known as "Kinky" but he says that it doesn't make any difference what you call him as long as you call him for dinner.

"Yen" forgot he was going to graduate until Mr. Jones found it out by mistake and informed him. It was then too late to procure his picture to grace the Royal Blue. He has been a member of the R. O. T. C. and Spanish Clubs.

GOLDSMITH, FLORA—"School? Oh yes! another necessary evil."

"Casey" has been a member of the O. G. A. and Vox Puellarum Clubs. We've heard that she rises with the larks in the morning and avoids them in the evening.

CASHATT, LAURIN—"Kindly blow by and let me sleep."

"Crochett" is a member of the R. O. T. C. Tho never in a hurry, he always gets there.

The Class of 1920 has upheld very commendably the high ideals which characterize the spirit of Walla Walla High School. Ambition and fair play have won for the Green and Orange the highest rewards in scholarship, declamation, and other school activities. In athletics special honor should be given to the boys, who have represented the class on the different teams. Still more important than the actual accomplishments—even though they have been great—has been the development of good citizenship through standards set for loyalty to class, loyalty to school and loyalty to one's country—these ideals Walla Walla High School has given us.

This year the juniors are proud of a very successful Prom, as well as of a party which was enjoyed by many. The juniors did well in the declamation contest with Spokane, winning first place in the humorous class. In fact we have been "shining lights" in many activities; we might name the essay contest in which we also won first place, the debate seminar which includes five juniors, and the football and basketball teams in which were to be found many members of the class of 1921. We may be lazy but who would expect to see a busy Junior? We are merely resting after our labors of the first two years in high school. Look out, you sophomores and freshmen, for next year the class of 1921 will show you how things are to be done in the Walla Walla High School.

The sophomores have been carrying out Mr. Jones' motto this year: "If a thing is worth doing, do it right or not at all." There were few things which the sophomores once they started, did not finish with a lead. Take, for instance, the music contest, the scholarship contest, and the cross-country run. These are not the only things in which the sophomores are leading for we were represented in the declamation contest by a promising orator of whom we are justly proud. Beware of the Class of '20 next year—we'll not be a leisure class like—well, like the juniors! Again the solemn advice—Beware.

The freshman class this year is probably the largest class that has ever entered Walla High School. Another remarkable thing about this class is that every one who entered in September or even in February seems to have acquired that spirit of loyalty which pervades the whole high school. Nothing much has been done in athletics, but many are hopefully looking forward to next year when a great deal more can be expected of us as sophomores.

This year has been a busy one for the Senate. Our meetings have been full of pep and some fine programs have been given, consisting of music, debates, and extemporaneous speeches. Toward the latter part of the first semester an initiation was held, everyone enjoying a splendid time. The Senators have adopted a very pretty pin many of which are now being worn. The question of combining the House of Representatives and the Senate was brought up and voted on favorably. Plans are now being made for the consolidation of the two literary societies. Are we happy and are we busy? Yea, Bo! I'll say we are.

If the reader will notice the thirty pictures on these two pages he will see thirty reasons why the House has completed the most successful year of its history. The crowning event of the year was our victory over the Senate in the annual inter-society debate. The House has been well represented in all scholastic activities. Of the eight members of the debate team, five are House members. The same is true with two members out of three on the declamation team. We have enjoyed numerous social functions, being guests at some and hosts at others. To give all members literary advantages with a good time thrown in is our policy, which policy has certainly been successfully carried out this year.

The purpose of the Gimmel Teth Society is to increase the desire for good literature by giving a program each month where well known selections are read or acted out by the members. At the regular weekly business meetings ways and means are devised for supporting our French orphan and the regular business of the society is discussed. Besides promoting the study of good literature, our society tries to help in all school activities by attending them in a body; it also tries to promote sociability among its members and friendliness toward its sister and brother societies by promoting various social events during the school year. On account of the busy school life this year, we have had few programs but have turned our efforts toward getting well acquainted with our new members and toward making ourselves felt in the life of the school.

The El Adrea Society started the year with a determination to be the liveliest literary organization in the school. Our first important social event was a dance given at the home of Mrs. Langdon. During the following weeks the girls enjoyed hikes, theatre parties, and meetings held at the homes of the various members. Many social events which we have planned for the spring months will occur too late to be recorded here. The society was fortunate in securing as our advisor Miss McGrew, who greatly added to the success of the El Adrea's undertakings.

There is a club in the high school that has a particularly noteworthy aim: namely, that of each year presenting to the public one of the great plays and doing it artistically. This cultivation of good dramatic and literary tastes is the purpose of the Classical Club, first organized in 1913, by Miss McIntyre. There are now approximately seventy students in the club. Another aim is the beautifying of the high school building. The club has already presented to Wa-Hi the velvet curtain now hanging in the auditorium. The Classical Club always devotes the money it makes through the plays to a gift of permanent value to the school. The nineteenth of March this year the Classical Club staged two one-act plays—"The Trojan Women," a great Greek tragedy, and "A Midsummer Night's Dream," a delightful parody on Shakespearian lines.

Of all the organizations in Wa-Hi, the Hayseed Club is the leader, because it is the peppiest, enjoys the best fellowship and is the most practical. The success of our society is due largely to the time and effort spent by our president, Mr. Harry Perry and by our faculty advisor, Mr. Kasten. During the course of the school year many interesting meetings have been held. The program consists generally of addresses by two or three outside speakers, of debates by a number of the club members, and after the literary section of the program has been concluded, of a "feed" which is always thoroughly enjoyed by all. But putting it all together we Hayseeds believe that there isn't a member who begrudges the time or energy he has put into the club or who doesn't believe he has received a great deal of good out of the organization.

The Order of Gregg Artists, being a national organization is limited in membership. Since the certificates of membership for this year were not received until April, the thirty-two new members are not shown in the picture. The Walla Walla High School entered the national interscholastic contest this year because of its high membership. On two points in the score, the rating was 95% and 91%. The other two points have not been reported yet. This rating is high and gives hopes of winning in the contest. The result will not be given until June 1. The organization though small this year has had some profitable meetings and is proud to leave such a good membership for next year.

This year the Seminars have paid attention to social activities as well as to the more serious things. At the beginning of the school year the society held a "Get Acquainted" party, the game "Flying Dutchman" serving as a good mixer. The next meeting of importance was made interesting by Miss Maxwell who kindly gave us a talk on "Schools in England." When Walla Walla was looking forward to a game with Lewis and Clark, the Seminars helped to put pep into the students by carrying out a stunt in assembly. Music and debate have played a prominent part in the meetings and we are sure that next year the society will be very active with such a good start as they have already made.

Faculty Advisor: Mr. CUSICANQUI

At the first of the school year was formed an organization which though comparatively new in its field has achieved an enviable prestige among societies of its kind. The success of the Spanish Club this year is not due to the work of any one member or of any small group of members but to the united efforts of the entire society. Mr. Cusicanqui, our faculty advisor, has proved to be a valuable aid to any endeavor in which the club has taken part. With his assistance we have been enabled to carry out successfully the purpose of this organization, namely to promote interest in the Spanish language, art, and customs and to have a wholesome good time.

Le Foyer-Francais, organized under Mlle. Aellen two years ago, was formed with the purpose of teaching the students of the French classes more about the French customs, French language, and the French students. We have written and received several letters this year from the French orphans who are supported by the high school. The meetings held during the year have been very successful. One of the most delightful meetings was held at the home of Mlle. Gladys Jensen. Mlle. Charlotte Jensen was also a hostess of Le Foyer-Francais. The year is to be closed with a party at which the Spanish Club members are to be guests.

THE ORCHESTRA

Musical Organizations

THE GLEE CLUBS

On March 26 occurred one of the history-making events of the school year, the presentation of "Princess Chrysanthemum," the well known Japanese operetta which proved a decided novelty in Wa-Hi entertainment. Due to the earnest efforts of our director, Mr. Linden Barnett, the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs not only were successful in the actual presentation of this Japanese fantasy, but were fortunate financially as well. It is interesting to note that the profits from the operetta will swell greatly a fund established to finance the work of beautifying the stage. It is our sincere hope that we can add to this fund in future years. The glee clubs have participated in numerous other entertainments, and have appeared in assembly on different occasions. Perhaps the success of the glee clubs is in a large measure due to the fact that they are now real organizations rather than mere classes.

ORCHESTRA

The orchestra has made wonderful progress this year, and to Mr. Tilley belongs the credit. He has been very busy in our behalf bolstering up section after section, and securing nothing but the best of selections for practice. We now play many difficult movements from the great masters; we do not play the notes but give the selections as they should be rendered. We have twenty members and are waiting for next year when we expect to more than double this number. We played for the operetta "Princess Chrysanthemum" as well as for Lyceum course numbers. Watch the orchestra.

BAND

After many years there is once more a band in Wa-Hi. Starting late in October the band began practice with about twelve members. The band now has an instrumentation of forty. Practically all the members had had no experience previous to their coming into this organization. The boys have worked hard, starting on small "A B C" numbers until now they have a repertoire of standard numbers that may well be the envy of professional bands. Naturally there is a reason for the wonderful development of the band. As has been stated before the boys worked hard, but work has been play under the leadership of Professor H. Tilley. He has been an enthusiastic, and willing director always and has won the respect of the school and especially of the boys in the band for his untiring efforts.

Twenty-seven years ago a small class of four members—three girls and one boy—were graduated from our high school and these were the first alumni. It was not until some years afterwards that mutterings of an alumni association were heard.

As our school grew and the classes became larger so too did the membership roll of our association grow until today we number more than one thousand members! There are few organizations in our city boasting of greater membership. Our alumni are in all walks of life; they are found in the places of responsibility in our community and rightly so because of their previous training.

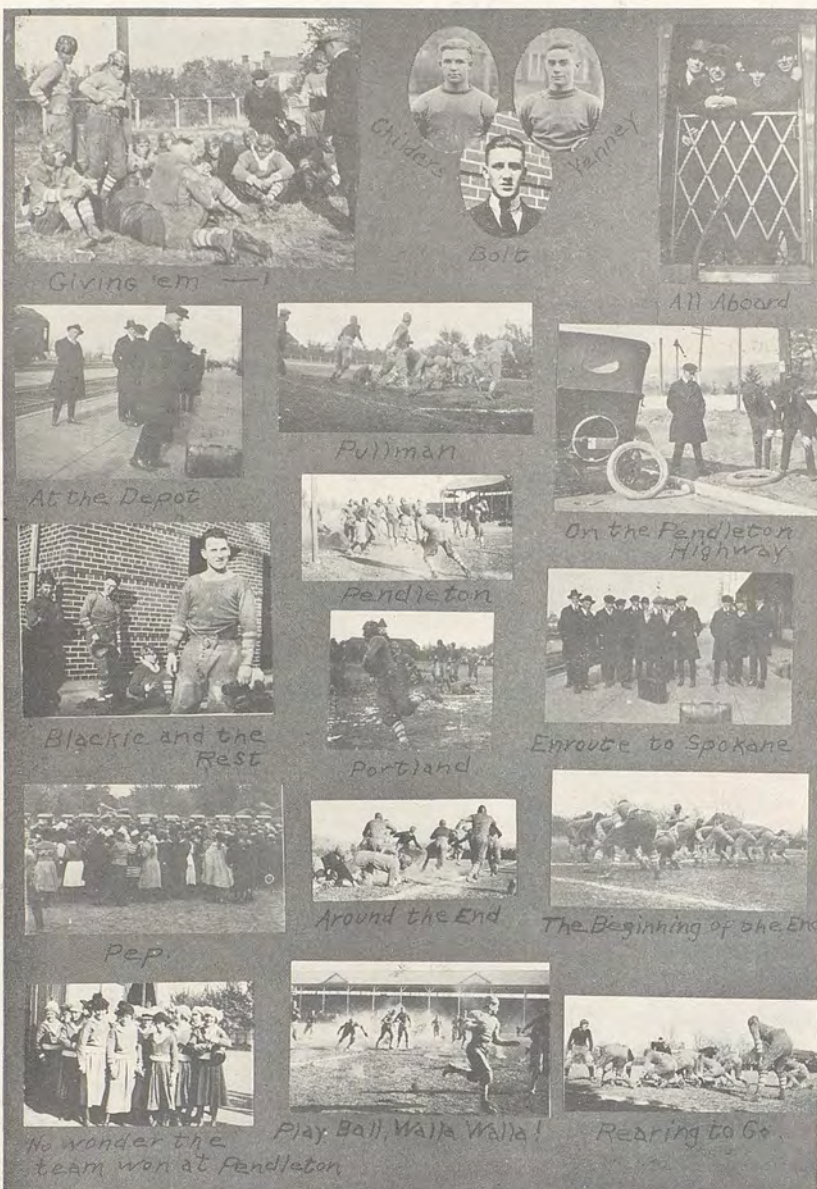

Although our association was founded to further the best interests of our high school graduates, it goes still farther in that it provides the means whereby our graduates are brought together at least once a year and sometimes more often. The annual banquet followed by a dance has become an established custom in our community and marks the end of the Commencement festivities each year. Of recent years an alumni dance has been given during the Christmas vacation. This has brought many town members together with those home for Christmas vacation from various universities and colleges. The fine spirit of informality which has marked all of the alumni social gatherings has been the main cause of their great success. The fellowship of school days is a lasting friendship, and to perpetuate this fellowship is one of the principal aims of this association.

With a membership of more than a thousand our field of usefulness is continually broadening. It is the alumni who must get behind their alma mater if she is to be one of the institutions of this community for she in turn is judged by her graduates.

If we consider the fact that our boys played with hard luck most of the season, our football squad was one of which to be proud. Counting the number of men lost on account of injuries we feel that no school in the Northwest could have succeeded as well as we did. During the entire season we suffered only two defeats both of which we lost only by a very narrow margin.

The team was as staunch on defense as any brick wall. Very seldom were our opponents able to make yardage through our stone-wall line. In case they did succeed in breaking through, their victory was of short duration, for a back field of superior tackling ability was always there to stop them.

On the offensive our Blue and White players were whirlwinds. Many an opponent has wondered at the speed and cunning which characterized all the actions of our team. The reason for this commendable display is simply that the Wa-Hi men were representatives of old Wa-Hi and had had the vim and spirit instilled in them to such an extent that they didn't know what stop meant. Our interference was not as good as it might have been but with the same coach and a goodly number of old men back, and with the coming in of new players our team next year promises to be a championship crew.

The Football Squad

Captain Sam Farmer: "Sam," a good leader and a hard hitter, a man to depend upon in a pinch. This year marks an end of Sam's playing for the Blue and White. We lose a valuable man but the world profits by our loss.

Captain-elect Howard Hughes: "Cutie," a quiet easy going fellow but one who was a stone wall on both offense and defense; a fine leader to head the squad for 1920.

Joe Burks: "Hard-Boiled Joe," the best center on any high school team in the Northwest. Joe also played his last game for us on Thanksgiving day, leaving enormous holes in the ranks of the Washington High team of Portland.

Glen Perry: "Old Faithful." An end that was hard to beat. He has an almost perfect toe for booting the ball between the goal posts. Good-bye, Glen. Here's hoping you are as big a success in life as you have been in football. We certainly have confidence in your future.

Harry Perry: "Big Glen's little Uncle." A hard hitting half who could usually make yardage when needed. The same luck to you, Harry, that we wish to Glen.

Jacob Jacky: "Schnapps." The little fellow with the hard hitting quality of a bullet. As a guard he is a wizard. He will probably be back with us next year.

Harold Blackman: "Blackie." The oldest and one of the best players on the team. With Blackie as interference and Holt with the ball it was "good night" for those who came in their path.

Lionel Davin: "Frog." A sleepy looking fellow but when he hit the line, Ouch! He was another mainstay of our line, holding down left end. Frog will be back next year and promises to be 100% better than he was this year.

David Pfeiffer: "Cows." A very good guard and in case of necessity he could be a good center. Dave made a name for himself in Spokane, said name being "Cow." Dave is another of those illustrious seniors who have played their last game for old Wa-Hi.

Maurice Roe: "Roe." A dependable right half who seldom failed to make yardage often by skirting our opponent's right end. Roe is another defender of the Blue and White who will be back next year.

Harris Keelen: "Ike." A good end but a little light. He was one end who seldom was blocked in on a punt. He could tackle with fearful accuracy.

Walter Rae: "Walt." Another good guard, one who was unable to finish the season on account of internal injuries.

Frank Smith: "Frank." A fellow who had tough luck all the way through. Early in the season he suffered from a wrenched knee which kept him out of the game. He wishes he could come back next year and play for Wa-Hi.

Jerrold Sitts: "Thelma." A black horse who showed us what a real tackle could be. This was Jerrold's first year as a player but he's coming back next year, so our opponents should steer clear of him.

Harold Holt: "Hazel." The fellow with a cork screw twist. The hardest half to tackle on the squad. "Hazel" is coming back next year to help us down North Central and Lewis and Clark. "Give the ball to Holt!"

Jack Bennett: "Jackie." An able general for the squad. A little new as it is Jack's first year as a player but he's a good quarterback with the speed of the wind.

Ralph Corkrum: "Luke." One of the best halves seen this season, a virtual whirlwind. He received a broken collar bone in practice, so wasn't able to finish the season. He will also be back and help us win more laurels the coming year.

Ralph Augustavo: "Augie," our Yell King and Athletic Manager, had what is probably the hardest job in the school. He worked faithfully for us in every way and was one who helped us win many games.

Coach Lingrel was the man who made the football team last fall. He took raw material except one or two veterans and molded them into a team that achieved remarkable success. We hope to have him back next year.

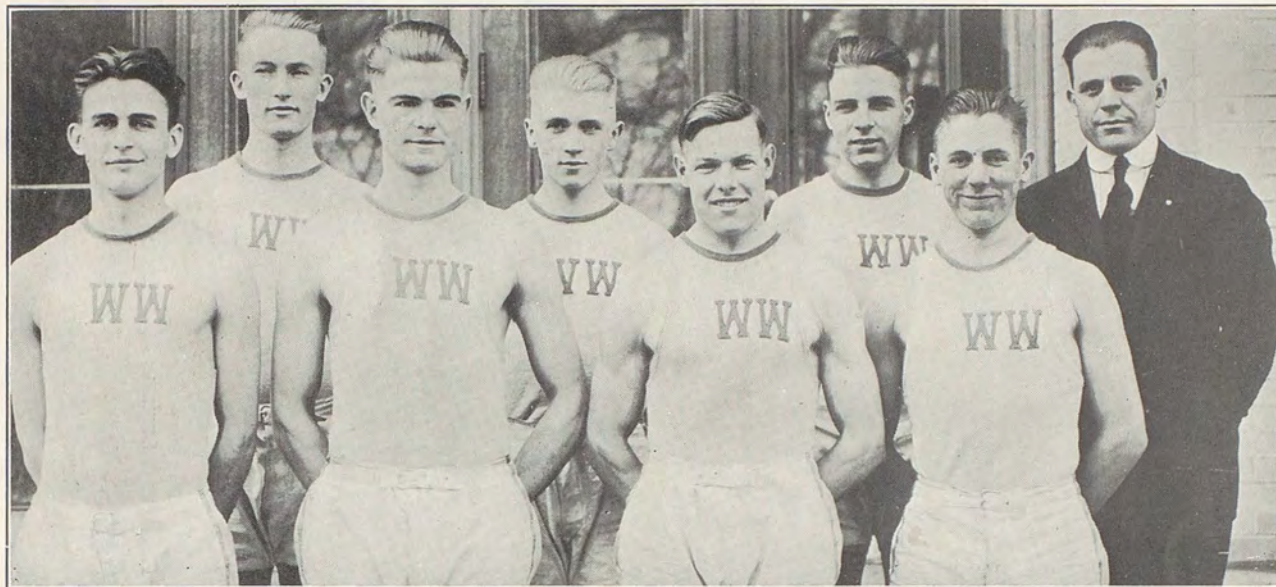

THE SECOND TEAM

Much of the success of our first team was due to the efforts of our second team. With their ever-ready fight and aid they enabled the first team to be the success that it was. They played games with Touchet, Milton, and Umapine and made a very creditable showing. Although they were not at all times winners, it was not usually their fault for some of their best men were kept at home as subs for the first squad; hence they were not able to be as much of a success as might be expected. Assistant Coach Post deserves much praise for his untiring work in making a second team of which we could be justly proud and also for producing excellent substitutes in case one of the first team men was injured. The majority of the second team string will be back again in the fall, thus brightening our prospects for a victorious team next year. If all of the fellows next year who did not try out this year for football will come out in September, and if the spirit and fight exhibited by this year's second team is the same, we will certainly have a champion crew for 1920.

Champions of the Northwest! That is the title which belongs to our basketball team. Defeated just once by a high school, they stand supreme in our eyes and in the eyes of the whole Northwest as basketball players. They later retrieved this one lone defeat of one point, the score being 12-13, by later on in the season trimming the same team 31-13. Out of a contest in which sixteen schools were engaged only one school could be victorious and old Wa-Hi upset all basketball dope and emerged from under the wreckage a winner. The wearers of the Blue and White not only defeated Clarkston, winners of the tournament at Whitman but also sent Pullman home a loser, after Pullman had been the decided favorite during all the days of the tournament. A beautifully engraved loving cup was given to the boys by Hotel Coeur d'Alene and brought back to the school. Each member of the squad was given a gold watch fob in the shape of a basketball by the S. A. A. C. as his own individual prize.

After winning the title of Inland Empire Champs, the coach thought that the season for basketball was over but a certain school by the name of Whatcom from somewhere up in Bellingham very urgently insisted on playing us for the title of State Championship. Being always ready to defend the name of old Wa-Hi, the team again started training and sent word to Whatcom to come on, the winner of the title to be that school which won two out of three games. Whatcom came and played us much to their regret. After sending Whatcom home mourning over their loss, no further schools seemed willing to offer themselves as victims; so the season closed, with old Wa-Hi where she belonged—at the head of them all.

A BASKETBALL HERO IN FOOTBALL TOGS

HARRY PERRY	GLEN PERRY	WILLIAM ZELLER
MAURICE ROE	Coach ELMO LINGREL	WILLIAM CHANDLER
JOE CHANDLER	NEAL TURNBOW

The Basketball Team

Captain Glen Perry: This old stand-by, a veteran of three years, was the center of our defense. He is the best layback guard ever performing in Walla Walla. Tall, quick, and strong he kept his opponent's score very low. He won many games by his accurate shooting from the foul line. He converted 83 free throws into points.

Captain (Elect) Joe Chandler: A forward who possessed unusual ability in dribbling and shooting. He could also cover his man on defense, something rare among forwards. He is called "The Wizard of Basketball" and certainly lived up to his reputation. He scored 108 points in 12 games, being the greatest scoring forward in the Northwest.

(Etta) Bill Chandler: A center of extraordinary ability. He is not noted for his size but for his skill and fight. He is the high point man for the team, scoring 128 points in 14 games. He will be with us next year to help us win another championship.

(Helen) Neal Turnbow: Another forward possessing unusual ability in scoring from the field and under the basket. He could always be depended upon and never failed in time of need. He scored the winning baskets against Bellingham and has a total of 76 points in 13 games. Being excellent on defense, he could always cover his man, at the same time using his ability to score to a good advantage.

(Georgia) Maurice Roe: A man who was the great find of the year, and who without experience developed into an excellent running guard. He covered the floor and at the same time kept his opponent closely guarded. He was the fastest man on the team and reliable on the defensive. In both the Bellingham games he held his man scoreless, thus helping materially toward winning these important games.

(Chesty) Bill Zeller: This sub played a very good game as either a forward or guard. Fast and speedy he helped us at a crisis. Invariably he played a good game and could be depended upon always. He could play forward to a good advantage, scoring 9 baskets in one game. His record is 38 points in 7 games.

(Hayseeds) Harry Perry: Another sub who played a very good game at guard, always being able to help out in pinches. He was a steady, consistent player and was very dependable. Unfortunately his inability to play the last part of the season was a great loss because he was a splendid team worker, playing the same sort of game as did Glen.

(Ike) Harris Keelen: Ike was substitute center or guard, whichever position he was called upon to fill. He had plenty of nerve and fight and made a good showing at Spokane in the Conference. He was late in being picked for the team; so when the pictures were taken he was not included. In spite of his late start, he played a steady game.

Our basketball team would not have been what it was this season without the work of our Coach Lingrel. He developed the players into such a machine that no one could stop them; consequently our school, at the close of the season, was given the enviable title "Champions of the Inland Empire and of the State of Washington."

A FEW OF OUR TROPHIES

TRACK

Track is possibly the only form of athletics in our school that has not been supported in the proverbial Wa-Hi fashion. This may be due to the fact that the students do not care as much for track as for other forms of athletics or else that we do not have enough men to qualify for track work. Too much praise cannot be given the fellows, however, who have worked diligently all the season to make track a success. Despite the fact that there are only three track letter men in school this year, the prospects for a successful season are very bright, more boys turning out for practice than at any time during the past four years.

TRACK MEET WITH WHITMAN FROSH

A meet was held with the Whitman Freshmen on Ankeny Field, May 6, and the contests, resulting in a 79 to 59 victory for Wa-Hi, brought forth some very good material. Maurice Roe, high point man of the meet, demonstrated his ability to sprint by taking first in the 50, 100, and 220 yard dashes. Neal Turnbow showed up in top form by taking first in the 220 low hurdles, second in the javelin throw, second in the 50 yard dash and second in the broad jump, losing to Hal Holmes of Whitman by one half inch. Joe Chandler, to the surprise of all track fans, won first in the 120 yard high hurdles and first in the high jump. Steve Meyer did not get a letter last year but will surely earn one this year for he took first in the 440 yard dash and third in the 100 yard dash. William Zeller showed up well with two seconds and two thirds. Others showing ability were Elmer Sitts, Sam Farmer, Alfred Royce, Howard Deye, Raymond Rice, Lowell Richmond, and Virgil Bicknell. Wa-Hi won the relay by a large margin, the team consisting of Steve Meyer, Joe Chandler, Maurice Roe, and Neal Turnbow.

INTERSCHOLASTIC TRACK MEET AT PULLMAN

At Pullman, May 22, will be held an Interscholastic track meet between representatives sent by Pullman High School, Lewis and Clark, and North Central High Schools of Spokane, University of Idaho Freshmen, and Washington State College Freshmen. The following will probably be sent from Walla Walla: Joe Chandler, Maurice Roe, Neal Turnbow, Steve Meyer, Sam Farmer, Elmer Sitts, William Zeller, Lowell Richmond, Allen Leake, Floyd Henline, Raymond Rice, and Virgil Bicknell.

BASEBALL

Baseball has been popular recently with the majority of the boys who seem to prefer the game as a spring activity. Next year the question of Baseball versus Track will probably be discussed and the latter sport may be obliged to give way to the game of baseball.

Girls' Basketball

LETTER WINNERS

Girl's interclass basketball started out this year with every one in high hopes for each class began with a good team, full of spirit to win. The first series began December 8th, with the seniors against their old friends the juniors. The game was very exciting and when the whistle blew the score stood 19-9 in favor of the juniors. The first series ended with the juniors the winners. The second series began three weeks later and proved to be a more exciting series of games, because the teams had had more practice and fought harder. In this game the freshmen especially showed what practice could do for they defeated both the seniors and sophomores. The second series ended again with the juniors the victors. When the scores were added the juniors had won first place, thus winning the Interclass Championship. The seniors and sophomores and freshmen tied for second place. After the interclass games were over, a star team picked from all four teams challenged the Whitman College freshman girls on the high school floor. Altho the members of the college team were the swifter and had had more practice they could not keep our forwards from rolling in the baskets, and when the whistle blew the score was 21-18 in Wa-Hi's favor. A return game was played on Whitman's floor with the score 21-24 in favor of Whitman freshies. Probably this season has been more successful than any other because every team has had spirit and staunch rooters. There is also a great deal of good material to work with and all the girls are looking forward to next year with much interest.

JUNIORS—INTERCLASS CHAMPIONS

Irene Whybark, Helen Teal, Georgia Talbot, Selma Struthers, (Capt.); Esther Cornelison, Ilah Cornwell, Helen Brogan.

Review of Interclass Events

Walla Walla High School, which is noted all over the Northwest for its high standard in football, basketball, and student government believes in healthy competition, fair play and good sportsmanship in losing or winning.

Another activity perhaps less known to the outside but more important to the students than interscholastic activities, is interclass competition; therefore during the whole school year the Class Council schedules contests in which each class must take an active part. In every contest four places are awarded, 7, 5, 3, and 1 points being awarded respectively. The class which works the hardest, has the best team and wins the most points is awarded a bronze shield.

The first interclass event was a ticket selling contest for the Thanksgiving football game with Washington High School of Portland. The seniors showed that they were the best workers for they won first place in the contest.

The first series of athletic games began with boys' basketball. The juniors had regained their old spirit and won the laurels.

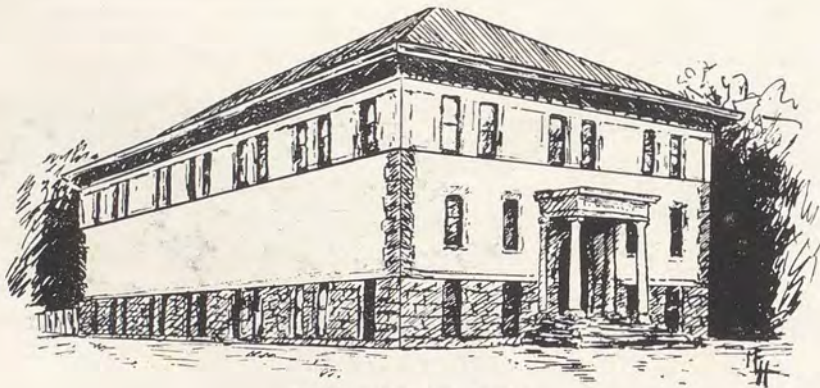

The annual Declamatory Contest was given in weekly assemblies and proved a very interesting program. The juniors won first, seniors second, sophomores third, and freshman fourth.

Girls' basketball began with "pep," double points being awarded to each class in these games. The juniors won the 14 points which gave them a start in the race with the seniors.

Cage ball, the exciting game of last year, proved more exciting this year because everybody understood the game. Every class had large numbers out, for this contest affords amusement to every one. Again the seniors won first, juniors second, freshman third, and sophomores fourth. The sophomores awoke the last few weeks and won the music contest and cross country run.

The Interclass track meet was held Friday afternoon, May 14, on Wa-Hi field. The result of the meet was as follows: Juniors 58 points, seniors 28 points, sophomores 18 points, freshmen 10 points. Sam Farmer was high-point man with a total of $21\frac{1}{2}$ points, Maurice Roe being second with $19\frac{1}{2}$ points.

As the Annual goes to press before the contests are completed, every class has a good chance to win, for contests in track, boys' tennis, and girls' tennis have not yet taken place. With all these games to look forward to, each class has hopes of winning the shield.

The Walla Walla High School Debate Seminar is an association of eight boys, all striving for the advancement of Wa-Hi's fame in the field of argumentation. The two teams are preparing to debate with North Central High School of Spokane, the proposition being, "Resolved, that the United States should prohibit the immigration of foreign labor for at least eight years." The forensic joust with Spokane will be held May 7, the negative team traveling to the hostile territory of our opponents, and the affirmative team remaining to defend the ship at home.

THE TEAMS

Virgil Thomas, our old war horse, leads the affirmative team. He excels at rebuttal but is too often found floundering in the quagmires of puppy love to be a champion at speech-writing. Brents Stirling has joined the seminar with the spirit that is so well typified by a rubber ball; the harder he may be thrown down in defeat the higher he will bounce. The affirmative's alternates are Harold King and Maynard Baldwin, both inexperienced but promising as debaters. On the negative team is Melvin Rader, whose chief claim to be a speaker is that he is a little more experienced than some of the other debaters. Lloyd Weir, "the boy with the moving picture face," is the other negative speaker. Clark Robinson and Ivan Meyer, the negative alternates, are forging ahead by hard work.

COACH

At the head of the seminar is a debater of successful experience, having victoriously represented Grand Island College and Nebraska University in debate and oratory and having coached debate in the Idaho State Normal School. He has a buoyant, youthful spirit and yet the sagacious judgment and expert ability to cope with debate. We all hail Coach E. A. Everett.

SENIOR PLAY CAST

During the year two entertainments have been presented which have pleased the patrons of Wa-Hi and have won honor for our school.

On April 16, was held the Declamation Contest with Spokane in which Wa-Hi came forth victorious. William Zeller, a junior, represented Wa-Hi in the Humorous class and won an unanimous victory, while John Thomas, a sophomore, in the Oratorical class won over North Central two to one. Roy Riffle, a senior, in the Dramatic class lost by one point. It was our first victory in five years but it will not be the last because the forty-three speakers at the preliminary tryouts show an awakened interest in declamation in Wa-Hi.

One of the events of the year at Wa-Hi is the annual play given by members of the senior class. This year the presentation of an unique modern play, "Fanny and the Servant Problem," on June 1, more than fulfilled expectations. All members of the cast displayed unusual ability and charm, from the sweet likable "Fanny" played by Irene Hawks to the dear quaint old ladies who always agreed, played by Dorothy Baxter and Gladys Goodwin. The standard of the play can be judged by its author, Jerome K. Jerome, and the ability of the players by expressions of praise from those who were present.

However, all our success is largely due to the supervision of the best coach in the Northwest, Miss Steere, who has never been too busy to help. The Expression classes have also done much toward presenting attractive assemblies, and in helping whenever needed. With Miss Steere as our coach next year many good entertainments are assured.

DECLAMATION

John Thomas, Oratorical; William Zeller, Humorous, Roy Riffle, Dramatic; Marie Gauer, Dramatic; Martha Southworth, Humorous; Miss Steere, Instructor; Helena Dirks, Dramatic.

The fact that the Eh Kah Nam is really a success is not realized by many people. Of course most people grant that it is a success from a literary standpoint but do not think it successful financially. Let us consider the truth about this paper then. As there is no charge to students, one third of the student ticket fund rightfully belongs to the Eh Kah Nam. Very seldom do we find any necessity of drawing out the entire proportion as the advertisements almost pay for the publishing of each issue. Looking from this point of view we find that the Eh Kah Nam is really giving a neat sum to the student body each year. In the past the Eh Kah Nam staffs have endeavored to uphold the Indian meaning of Eh Kah Nam, "Big Talk." Few will question the validity of any statement that the goal has certainly been attained; in the future, however, a new era is coming for school papers. That is the day of the weekly high school paper, edited by a class in journalism. The Eh Kah Nam staff of 1919-20 sincerely hopes that Wa-Hi will soon possess a weekly edition of the school activities. Our best wishes for success to the staff of 1920-21.

For the past five years the Junior Class has published a volume of the Royal Blue. These volumes have faithfully portrayed the spirit of Wa-Hi, for they have set forth the status of the various organizations within the high school, have recorded the events of the school year, and have served as a medium for the display of the artistic and literary accomplishments of the students. In publishing the sixth number of the Royal Blue, we have had the same goal as our predecessors, endeavoring not only to maintain the high quality of workmanship established by them but also to add a touch of originality which is entirely our own. The class of 1921 sends forth this volume with the hope that it may be a faithful record of Wa-Hi events, a chronicle which will be held ever dearer as the years roll on.

Acknowledgement

The members of the Royal Blue staff wish to acknowledge valuable assistance received from persons not upon the staff: Miss Plympton, Edith Lambert, Henrietta Osterman, Maynard Baldwin, Virgil Thomas, and Maurice Roe. We appreciate greatly their invaluable help. We also wish to express our deep gratitude to the business firms who have contributed to the success of our Advertising Department, for without their assistance this volume could not be published.

We have now finished our second year of R. O. C. T. work under the capable leadership of Captain Rinearson, a graduate of West Point. In looking back at the past we at once see what a great help this training has been. Its benefits are everywhere evident. A period a day of calisthenics and marching has developed the boys physically and has given them a military bearing, at the same time teaching them the fundamental military tactics.

But its benefits have been more farreaching than this. Every thread of our high school life has felt the benefits of this organization. Out of this body has grown the largest and liveliest club in the high school, the club that fights for the good of Wa-Hi—the R. O. T. C. Club.

This year we are sending nineteen men to Camp Kearney for summer training. They go with the knowledge that they must live up to the standard set by Wa-Hi's last year's representatives, but, difficult as this task may be, we feel that they are fully capable of maintaining this standard.

All of our military equipment has now arrived, adding greatly to the appearance of the companies and creating much enthusiasm among the men. We feel that we are closing a very successful year with everything pointing to a still brighter one ahead.

The largest and most important of any organization in high school came into being on February 26, 1920 when the Junior R. O. T. C. cadets organized the Wa-Hi R. O. T. C. Club. The purposes of the society, as set forth in the constitution, are: first, to promote interest in the R. O. T. C.; second, to arrive at a thorough understanding of the military policy of the United States; third, to promote proper respect for the flag of the United States; fourth, to encourage the practice of courtesy towards ex-service men, G. A. R., Spanish American, World War and other veterans; fifth, to support at all times law and order in the community; sixth, to provide social functions for club members; and finally, to uphold Wa-Hi and support all her activities. The fact that this is the highest type of an organization cannot be denied by anyone who reads the purposes of the club. Although, still a very youthful club we have already started and boosted to success the movement for dress reform in the Walla Walla High School. No other organization could have successfully inaugurated that program. We have a membership greater than the combined roll of the Senate, House, Gimmel Teth, and El Adrea societies and we are still growing.

Dress reform is not the only thing the Wa-Hi R. O. T. C. Club has "put across." We volunteered to sell tickets at the local interscholastic basketball tournament and succeeded in selling a large number. "The Wa-Hi R. O. T. C. Club of the local high school entertained at a most delightful military ball on Saturday evening, April 3rd, in the gymnasium of the high school, Cowan's Orchestra furnishing the music for the dancing. With the ball room appropriately hung with flags of various colors, the refreshment booth decorated in red, white and blue, and the uniforms of the corps predominating, the scene was as charming as it was military in appearance," reads an account of the most important social event of the school year in one of our local newspapers. In other words the club has given a ball and added another to its growing list of successes since its organization this spring.

In The Mirror

A phonograph was once placed in the home of the Editor. Along with the phonograph came many records. The Editor played all the records except one, which he left unplayed merely because it had the formidable title of "Lullaby." Finally after many months he played this selection and found it to be one of the most excellent in the entire number. Moral: First appearances constitute only a shallow criterion by which to judge intrinsic worth. These editorials may be better than they look. At least, Friend Reader, peruse them to find out.

House and Senate merged. Well, who would ever have thought it?

We wonder what a sensation a person would cause if he made this announcement in assembly, "There will be a very unimportant meeting of the Blank Society. All members are not urged to attend."

WHY NOT?

The success of dramatics during the past year has received no small consideration from the Student Body. There has been revealed a genuine interest in school theatricals and an earnest desire on the part of many students to participate in the art of the footlights. Since this is true, why not form a dramatic club? Almost every important high school has such a club. Wa-Hi should certainly not be backward.

SOMETHING NEW

On May 21st in the High School Gymnasium the May Fete was presented under the supervision of Miss Steere. The Fete, which was an original idea of Miss Steere's, consisted mainly of pantomime and dance. The cast was chosen from the student body. Rosebud, Helena Dirks; Prince Paul, Ralph Tetherow; Houri, Carol Ely; Harlequin, Harold Crocker; Bugler, Ralph Augustavo; Herald, Marie Gauer.

The dances as given by the sixth and seventh period gymnasium classes were extraordinarily well executed. The Highland Fling, the Spanish dance, the Pierette, and the May Pole dances were especially pleasing. From the capers of the jester to the choosing and crowning of the Queen of May, the audience was delightfully entertained.

This is the first May festival held in Wa-Hi and because of its success, it is likely that our school henceforth will annually crown her own Queen of May.

THE GIRLS CARRY ON

No longer could any Wa-Hi Royal Blue be complete without some special mention of the two Y. W. C. A. organizations. One of these, the Vox Puellarum Club, is entering school activities for the first time this year. Very interesting programs have been given at the business meetings. The parties and other social events have been very enjoyable. During the holidays, a Christmas party was given for the poor children of the city, about a hundred children receiving gifts. In March a Fashion Show was put on in assembly. The purpose of this show was to illustrate the appropriate dress for different occasions. The girls have been working very hard during the past year and feel that they have accomplished a great deal.

The members of the Friendship Circle or the Freshman Girl Reserves have been busy all the year carrying out their purpose of promoting friendship between Freshman girls. The club has given several parties and other social affairs and has had a very successful year.

A CONSTRUCTIVE SUGGESTION

It has been truthfully said that the most perfectly constructed government deteriorates if no efforts are ever made to improve upon it. The tree that never grows oftentimes rots. Now Wa-Hi boasts of probably the most advanced form of student self government to be found in any high school in the United States. One step farther in self control, however, seems not only plausible but expedient. The honor system of taking tests is being successfully employed in almost every important college in America as well as in many military academies. At various times, it has been adopted by individual teachers within the high school. Its introduction has always been attended by signal success. Under the honor system, students subscribe to the following guarantee, "I hereby pledge my honor that I have neither given nor received help during this examination." The teacher then places absolute trust in her pupils, leaving the room when she pleases and in no way acting as policeman.

The benefits of such a system are outstanding. The burden of responsibility which the honor system imposes upon students brings out the individual's finer qualities. The honor system is an acid test of character, a discriminating scale upon which manhood is weighed and strengthened. Then, also, it relieves the teacher of the disagreeable burden of watchful supervision of tests.

Let us continue to uphold the high standards of self conduct for which the members of Wa-Hi are reputed. Let us boost for the introduction of this forward step in self control—the honor system.

BETTER ASSEMBLIES IN THE FUTURE

Motion is always attractive. The show window which contains a moving object attracts attention. A moving automobile is watched more intently than an automobile which is standing. A person can best attract the attention of an unobservant friend by waving the hand. A railroad train which comes whisking past impels greater interest than a stationary one. Now the more interesting, attractive, and impressive a sight appears the longer it will be remembered.

There can be no doubt, then, that the moving picture is more vividly attractive and interesting, and hence a medium which has greater control over the memory and mind, than the printed page. Words, at their best, can only convey a visionary and abstract picture, a mere impression, while moving pictures are concrete, animated fac-similes of scenes or events.

It was Mr. Jones who realized the remarkable instructive value of the motion picture. He was instrumental in introducing the motion picture into Wa-Hi, having our assembly equipped with a first class moving picture machine and with a screen upon which to project the pictures. Think of it! We can now have movies in our own school—good movies, too. But that is not the best of it. We have a machine to take our own moving pictures as well. We can see our own football games flashed upon the screen, and we can view our own activities pictured through the medium of the cinema reel. Give nectar and ambrosia to the gods but let us have our own moving picture assemblies!

A CORNER-STONE OF WA-HI

Human beings seem to exist for the excellent. They crave the best in music, art, literature, and all that makes life worth living, with the same passionate acquisitiveness that the thirsting nomad possesses as he yearns for the oasis in the desert. As an outgrowth of this passionate desire for the finest and the best, the students of Wa-Hi have introduced and maintained Lyceum Courses of a superior quality. This year's Artists' Course was one of exceptional merit.

The first number was the Madame Butterfly Concert, produced by a troupe of players who took for their theme the story of Madame Butterfly, as it was written by John Luther Long, an American author, a story which later formed the basis of Puccini's well-known opera.

Lambert Murphy, one of America's greatest tenors, rendered a program of exquisite charm on the night of Nov. 21. The finely tempered, lyrical qualities of his voice were admirably suited to the ballads and quiet beautiful melodies which he rendered.

No program was received with more enthusiasm and appreciation than the concert of the Cherniavsky Trio. The creations of great musical artists are characterized by a peculiar delicacy and yet a vibrant and resonant quality of tone which makes the blood tingle and causes the spirit to become exhilarated. It was because their selections were thus distinguished, that the Cherniavsky Trio was so enthusiastically received.

From the little country of Serbia came to us one of the most unusual and attractive musical numbers on the course, for the Serbian Tamburica Orchestra is absolutely unique—the only one of its kind in America. Mingling the rollicking, jingling airs of their native land with selections known and loved by Americans everywhere, they produced a program of sweetness and thrilling power. They used various sizes of the Tamburica, a musical instrument similar to the mandolin, banjo, and guitar, possessing great life, sweetness, and lustrous qualities of tone.

Next in order came Lorado Taft, one of America's foremost sculptors, who entertained Artist Course patrons with an illustrated lecture on "American Sculpture and Sculptors." It took no longer than one half minute for the audience to appreciate Mr. Taft. He was so bubbling over with modesty, originality, humor, geniality, and kindness of character, that his hearers fell in love with him midst his first words.

In presenting the next number of the course, the High School Band, Orchestra, and Glee Clubs, assisted by Miss Steere, cooperated in the rendition of an excellent program. The splendid showing made by our own high school talent, redounds to the credit of Wa-Hi.

The culminating apex of the musical numbers of the 1919-1920 Artists' Course was embodied in the person of Frances Ingram, Prima Donna Contralto of the Metropolitan Opera Company. Miss Ingram's past musical successes guaranteed to us an extraordinary musical offering. We were buoyed up to great expectations—but our expectations were far surpassed. The warmth, color, and richness of Miss Ingram's pure contralto voice were almost transcended by her extraordinary personality and personal beauty, causing her diversified program to be received with a whirlwind of applause.

What more fitting conclusion for such an eminently superior Artists' Course could possibly be provided than an address by William Howard Taft, ex-president of the United States? The insight which Mr. Taft displayed towards public questions which are perplexing America today, was characteristic of an able political leader and preeminent statesman.

How evident it is that the 1919-1920 Artists' Course was marked by a meritorious quality which will be difficult to surpass or even equal in the future! However, with the hearty backing of the student body it will be possible to make our school still more illustrious by the promotion of even better lyceum courses in the years to follow.

MR. MELOSH

It is seldom that any high school has such a conscientious care-taker as ours. We take this opportunity to express our gratitude to a man who has been so painstaking in his efforts to suit one thousand pupils and forty teachers. You have our sympathy, Mr. Melosh.

EDITORIAL

It has always been the policy of the Jokers to express themselves in simple language. In defense of this policy we argue thusly:

Visualizing clearly the influence of dynamic demoralization on the scattered populace at large of those individuals completely taken down with pronounced cases of neurasthenia and acute imbecility brought on by their being entirely overcome by the enormous exuberance of their own verbosity and excessive following of threads of thought which tend toward lunar capacities and terminating in the annihilating capacity for indulgence in haranguing possessed only by orators of the soap-box type, poor sunsufcockroaches, who taking advantage of the marked susceptibility of the human mind to the flattering influence of elaborately constructed and viciously designated forms of flowery articulation and presentation, spread insidiously their copious supply of poisonous propaganda which tends to wreck the mental, digestive, and respiratory organs of the totally innocent listener and in the end destroy his faculties of vocal expression, assimilation, and contemplation, we trust that in the course of our argumentation we have not been guilty of an unnecessary superabundance of tautological redundancy.

USE SHORT WORDS!!!!

YELL LEADERS IN PARTICULAR

CHARLES A. WALIN

Once upon a time there navigated to the City of Written Work and High-Brow Science a Comer who was a disciple of Grand-Pa Pep and although he wasn't much for length, his legs reached to the ground nevertheless. And some of the Poultry thought that the Sun came and departed in his Eyes. He wore a Skypiece of Irish hue to Soft-soap the Hot effect.

Now said Comer was honored with the office of Town-Crier in which Capacity he directed the Wretchedly Wailing Hysterical Society in their worship of the Helmeted and Other teams. Upon his inauguration the Comer was presented with a Horn of Plentiful Noise through which he conducted sundry and various charges with Harmonious yells and discords upon his Adversaries.

When Victory hung on the Scaffold and Defeat was primping herself like a Vamp at the Moon, then was our Comer at the Battle Front Filibustering with such Vehemence and Wind-Power that the Opposition would get their P's and Q's in a Cacktail. Then, lo and behold, the Opposition would leave the Contention Patch in a Sefarious Vamouse!!

Offt-times when the Spartans and the Plebians got Down in the Mouth and Hollow between the Front and what was behind It, then would he raise the hair on Billy Sunday's head with his Rolling Adjectives on Quitters and other Breeds of Confoundd Ignoramuses.

Long and faithfully he served his Sufferers, offt-times throwing the Gage of a Voice howling in a Paradise of Fools and exhorting them to step out and let this little old Globe know that the Wretchedly Wailing and Hysterical Society was on the Map.

All good things, likewise bad and worse, eventually Kick the Bucket. At any rate one balmy Evening when Spring Fever was Rampant and Puppy Love was Batting around 500, he migrated to the Stage of the Auditorium and here the Dispenser of Sheep Skins conferred upon him a Diploma with the Honorary Title of the High Potentate of the Whole Universe.

When he was entirely gone the W. W. H. S. planted the Ghost of his Echo under his Horn of Office and said, "No one else can ever take his place." In his Memory was written this Tomb Stone Ode:

Here sleeps a tongue with prickles on it,
In life it wagged with no bit on it.
The truths it told, the laughs it raised,
Will ever grace fond memories page.
Sleep on! beloved of White and Blue,
And cursed the one who wakens you!

Who's Who at Wa-Hi

CUTEST CUTTER

This cunning creature, whose name is Harris Keelen, is the champion cutter of Wa-Hi, attending his classes only at intervals. He is an ardent advocate of woman suffrage; indeed his sympathy for the feline sex is often displayed.

FIERCEST FUSSER

George Krausher has been attacked by a fearful obsession that girls are the chief end of life. You should just see him wink. He is so expert that he has been permanently engaged by Newton Gose as an instructor in the art of winking.

MOST PETRIFIED PROCRASTINATOR

The only reason Frank moves at all is because it is cheaper to move than to pay rent. His motto is "Do not put off 'till tomorrow what can be put off for a week." He once was mistaken for a member of the faculty but this is explainable for he is repeatedly seen chumming with a certain teacher.

MOST MARRIED MAN

Once Leighton Duckworth went with another girl. Berney was angry. (See picture). After that he opposed the projected Wa-Hi League of Honor. Why? Horrors! They wanted him to meet some other girls and Berney would not like that one bit.

JAZZIEST JAZZER OF JAZZ ATTIRE

Here is pictured Roy Dorr. His favorite costume consists of high top boots, white pants, pink shirt, green tie, purple and gold stick candy collar, bow tie with black polka dots, and a cream colored cap to surmount this riot of color. It is rumored that he intended to purchase Virgil Thomas' niggah shoes before he dyed them.

WOBBLEST WOBBLY WOBBLYING

Shelley Buff is the incarnation of all that is tough and hard-boiled. With one look at his physiognomy his rival wobbles give up the ghost. He drinks (Root Beer), chews (Sterling's Cinnamon) and stays up 'till all hours of the night (Before 10 o'clock).

CHIEF NUT

From the famous peanut fields of North Carolina, came to us Paul Reed, indisputably the Chief Nut of the school. He is the organizer and Grand Nut of the local chapter of Nut House Nuts, a society which boasts (?) of such members as Walt Rae, John Siverling, and an honorary member in alumni—Prunes Whitehouse.

THE MISSING LINK

See the picture of the proof of Darwin's theory. Sight-seers call him Dick. The closest friend which he has is Tarzan of the Apes, and his most intimate companion Mr. Barnett, who is noted for his antics as song director.

Who's Who at Wa-Hi

PRIMPIEST PRIMPER IN PRIMPVILLE

One of the school's curiosities is Marvel McRae, who is perfecting a new labor-saving device, which will save shoe leather. This invention is a mirror projecting from the shoulders. It will save her a trip to a looking glass when she wishes to primp.

THE GREATEST CUTTER

This darling baby is scared by the mere closing of a door. The classroom evidently does not have the same fascination for Cornelia that the automobile has. She is seldom guilty of that awful crime "Knowing One's Lesson."

PRESIDENT OF THE FICKLE CLUB

They tell us that Enid is a very fickle young lady and that many a youth has already been cast aside. The club of which she is president is a large one, already numbering many scores in this school.

THE BEST NATURED (?)

The High Priestess of the Temple of Mirth should give Willa Utley a few of her faithful imps as attendants. She works so hard to be good natured that we think she deserves them.

"DOLLAR SIGN" MARION

There is only one girl in Wa-Hi who fills the bill as the most extravagant. Look Marion Hooper over and you'll find her dresses are made of greenbacks trimmed in gold pieces. Many an enterprising young man has felt the dent in his pocketbook after taking Marion out.

THE MOST TALKATIVE GIRL

Bill Chandler is standing up well under Etta Valentine's flow of language. Every other gladiator in high school has been driven back in defeat. Don't waste your courage, Bill, you'll need it in the long run.

LADY GIGGLES

This young lady, often called Wilberta Kirkman for convenience, holds the position of Lady Giggles. Her maxim is "Giggle and the world snickers with you; weep and you sob alone."

VICTIM OF PUPPY LOVE

Cupid has made a record with Irene's heart. There are so many dents, scars and cracks in it from her various affairs that Ralph is thinking of buying a new one for her. (They say there is a shortage in hearts, so hurry, Ralph!)

Free Advice

Harold King—You say that Latin is the Language of Heaven. What are you taking it for?

Howard Peterson—You can't drive a nail with a sponge, no matter how hard you soak it.

Roy Riffle—Don't take your girl out buggy riding. Horses often carry tales.

Etta Valentine—No need to study Spanish. One tongue is enough for any woman.

Ruth Simpson—Cheer up! even a hair casts a shadow.

Virgil Thomas—Dancing may be an "exilir of life" but fox trots and one steps are out of place on a debate platform.

Harry Isaacs—If in need of a receipe for cleaning marble, try a shampoo.

Dorsey Truant—Brace up, old man. Women are just like street cars. A different one comes along every three minutes.

Bill Zeller—It's all right to love a lady but don't let her tie you to her apron strings.

Doreen Shinabargar—By no means attempt the hike to South America. Your place is at home where you can advantageously enter the field of cosmetic science or aesthetic dancing.

Ralph Augustavo—You can never hold down a position as a hashslinger until you overcome your emotional nature. As to matrimony I should advise you not to take the fatal plunge until you find whether she expects to be supported in the manner to which she is accustomed.

Milton Nelms—Your intellectual capacities will never enable you to succeed in hair dressing, nor can you make good in the higher sciences for you are attracted by the science of beauty rather than by the beauty of science.

Harold Fanning—A refractory complexion can be kept under control by constant applications of corn starch poultice and regular use of Riffle's Rouge. A strict diet of grilled onions and garlic sundæes (or Saturdæes) should be strictly adhered to.

Lloyd Weir—Your worries regarding Lucile are needless. If her father pays you to stay away it is a still greater sign of her affection. In any event Whitman frosh bear watching.

Harry Perry—In order to give you any information whatever I must know the state you were born in but don't bother to give the bare details.

John Shaughnessy—Don't be mortified because you had to ride Miss Boucher's bicycle to town. But in case you try it again take off the crocheted bag.

Most of Us—Be it ever so homely, there's no face like our own.

Reader—Always laugh at a joke. You might want to tell one some day.

WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF—

The assembly clock kept correct time?

They sold cigarettes in the Sophomore Book Room?

Roy Rogers were as funny as he thinks he is?

Roy Riffle had to laugh without showing his teeth?

Harris Keelen came to class more than twice a week?

Mr. Jones failed to crack his annual joke about the deaf and dumb man who yelled to the moon?

Harry Isaacs went to church?

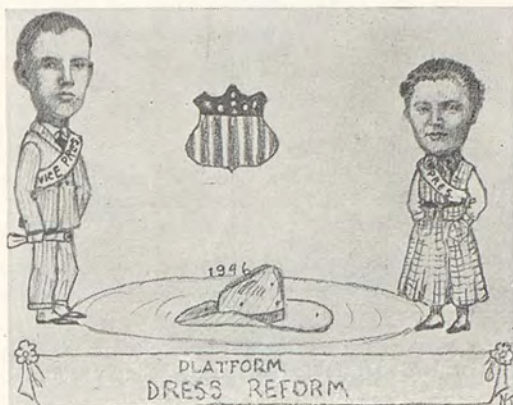

Puppy Love were abolished?

All these jokes were original?

Former Walla Wallans Nominated

ANTI-CHEWING GUM PARTY. PLATFORM IS DRESS REFORM.

PASCO, Wash., May 10, 1946 (By A. P.)—Convention of the Anti-Chewing Gum party, came to a close here tonight with the nomination of Miss Jean Doreen Shinabargar for president and Otis Jackson, her close associate and old schoolmate, for vice president. These candidates will run on a platform of 75% dress reform and will receive the undivided support of all ex-Prohibitionists, dyed-in-the-wool Bolsheviks, and worn-out Puppylovers.

“Dress reform,” says Miss Shinabargar, “is the true spirit of the day. We are entering this campaign with the spirit to do or die.”

The latest election forecast is that the happy pair will die.

Wants the World to Know What Tanlac Has Done for Him

"I am so grateful for what Tanlac has done for me that I want the world to know about it," said R. A. P. Augustavo, 2222 Pinktea Bullavard when speaking of the splendid results obtained from the beverage.

"To think that I should have suffered for so many years and spent millions of 'Somolions' in vain efforts to get relief and then find complete relief after taking only twenty-four quart bottles of Tanlac seems too good to be true.

"Yes, indeed; for many moons I suffered terribly from 'puppy love.' Everything I ate seemed to form a gas which so affected my heart that I could not gaze upon the fair maidens without my face turning a dull purple.

"I got awfully thin and was so weak that I had to give up my position as editor of 'The Last Gasp.' Often I jazzed so late that I was deprived of a good night's sleep, and as a result my studies came very near dying. In fact I had to take tests and my best friends, even my girl, did not expect to see me pull through. One afternoon as I sat reading the paper, in study D, my vicious eye was attracted by a statement of a man who had suffered similar trouble, telling how he had been wonderfully helped by Tanlac. I sent my small sister for a bottle and the results have been most surprising.

"Tanlae is a very good Beverage and if taken in great enough quantities will produce the same effect as the 'licker' of bygone days. After consuming about one quart of this liquid I can face any girl, even the most exasperating vampire, without even turning an old rose green. My strength returned to me so that in the course of a few half moons I married a most delightful, altho delicate girl. I am now editor of my own paper 'The Woes of a Married Man' and also constable and justice of the peace for the twin cities of Milton-Freewater.

"I do not believe that there ever was a better beverage made and I recommend it to any who wants to get the 'Kick' out of life.

"Yours for another bottle,

"MR. RALPH P. AUGUSTUS AUGUSTAVO, Now Married."

ON GIRLS—(By a Frosh.)

Girls are very stuckup and dignefied in their maner and behaveyour. They think more of dress than any thing else and like to play with dowls and rags. They cry if they see a cow in the afar distance and are afraid of guns. They stay at home all the time and go to church every Sunday. They are al-ways sick. They are al-ways funy and making fun of boys hands and they say how dirty. They cant play marbels. I pity them poor-things. They make fun of boys and then turn around and love them. I dont beleave they ever killed a cat or anything. They look out every nite and say oh, an't the moon lovely. Thir is one thing I have not told and that is they always now their lessons bettern boys.

History of Harold Blackman's Mustache

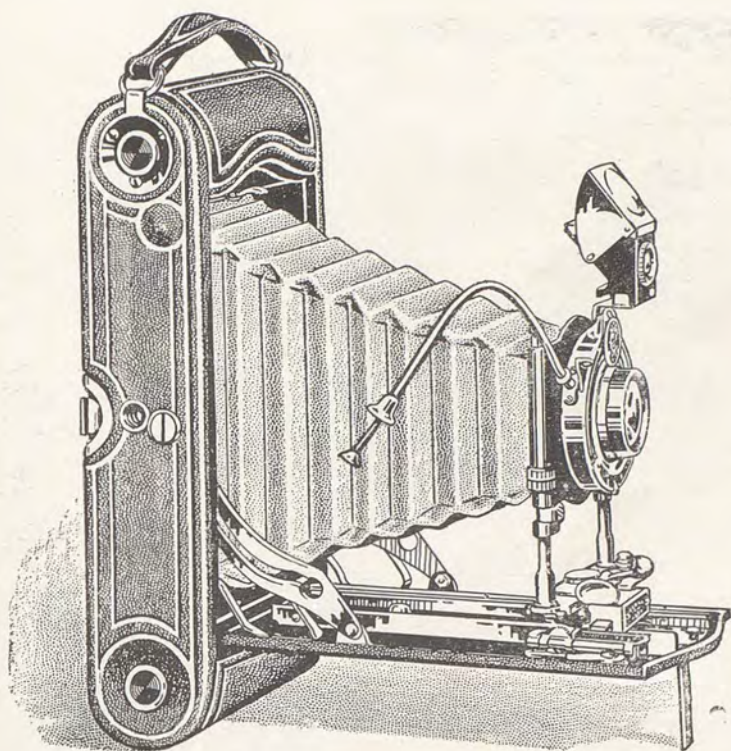

(As Told by Itself)

- Dec. 2—My man forgot to shave this morning.
- Dec. 3—My man felt for me when he woke up this morning. He had a hard time finding me and was sore.
- Dec. 4—All the people at school are kidding my man about me now. It's great to be a public character. Patted me a lot today.
- Dec. 5—Patted me some more. Someone he calls Virginia said I was "awful cute." I took this as a compliment but my man didn't.
- Dec. 6—Told me he'd shave me off if I didn't grow faster. What does he think I am anyway—a night blooming cereus?
- Dec. 7—Somebody sent my man an eyebrow stick this afternoon. He said some awful things and addressed me in shocking language all evening.
- Dec. 8—Talked to a beard today. He said he took six months to grow and that his man had to live in a cave and pretend to be a wild man while he was doing it.
- Dec. 9—Took me calling with him. She said I tickled.
- Dec. 10—Shaved!!!

ZENITH CARBURETOR

The Reason for ZENITH SUPREMACY

It was not a mere accident that the Zenith Carburetor was chosen for the famous Liberty engine, for Ralph De Palma's record-making racing car, for the trans-Atlantic seaplane "NC-4," for the large French and British tanks, for the great majority of European motor cars and for more than 100 makes of American-built cars and trucks. The choice in every case was the result of expert engineering knowledge and painstaking experimentation and study.

Zenith was chosen because its simple, automatic, non-adjustable system of carburetion insures Power, Speed, Economy and Reliability. And Zenith's records have confirmed the correctness of the choice.

4. A little lady here, but now an austere English teacher who reigns in Room 25.
5. This good-natured lad now merrily makes the anvil resound with the blows of his hammer.
6. A teacher of Geometry who has to carry some students across the "Bridge of Fools" in Room 21.
7. The little tot which this picture represents now administers English to the worldly-wise Seniors.
8. Can't you imagine her speaking a "piece" even then?
9. You will find her in the stenography room making use of Mr. Underwood's invention.
10. We wonder if this thoughtful young lady ever dreamt of being the main-spring in the publication of W. W. H. S. Annuals.
11. Here is pictured a present dissector of bugs as he once appeared.
12. From this pedagogue the helpless Sophomores now receive instruction in "The Tale of Two Cities" in Room 8.
13. We are certain that you will recognize by this picture a doughty instructor in Commercial Arithmetic.
14. A teacher of Algebra who is Goddess over all in Room 23.
15. She was interested in Art even then.
16. A soldier, tried and true, who now commands the Debate Seminar to fall in!

You merely choose a fabric, color and style to emphasize your personality. The material and tailoring are the very best you can get at any price.

Your Private Orchestra

Your porch is a wonderful place—room there for a jazz band, a society orchestra and a troupe of comedians—everything the young folks could want for a grand, glorious time.

The minute you acquire a New Edison, you've solved the problem of the young folks for all the summer. It's their dance orchestra, their vaudeville, their song leader. It supplies them with inexhaustible rounds of good, clean fun—at home, where the influence is wholesomest.

When the New Edison RE-CREATES an orchestra piece, you hear each instrument as distinctly as though the actual organization were before you. It's as good as a private dance orchestra.
